Serving the East side since 1932

Kite's, East side Chicago, Ill. 1932

My father, George Panos, immigrated to Canada in 1930 with a suitcase and $100 in his name. George met my mother, Doris, in 1937 and they were married by 1938.

My brother Joe and I came along shortly after Doris, we moved to Chicago where my father worked as a butcher and a waiter. He longed for more. With the addition of my little sister Fanny, my father decided it was now time to live out his American Dream. He found it in Milwaukee at 2214 N. Parkview Avenue. Jessie Fisher, the original "Kite" and owner of Fisher's sandwich shop since 1922, sold her business to my father in the spring of 1935. She named the new name, my mother's sibling, and I moved into Kite Fisher's with our father. We moved in. The restaurant had two booths, 10 stools, and a residence upstairs. Our family lived and breathed Kite Fisher's 24 hours a day.

Our staff included two waitresses, my mother who acted as our booker, and my father who took on the role of chef and short order cook. My parents dedicated every waking hour to Kite. I mean that quite literally as we have always been a 24/7 kind of place. We moved from the upstairs apartment into a traditional home in the early 30's. Even still, Kite Fisher's is always our home away from home. My father felt it was important to have his family run the business, and I agreed.

Much to our success, the restaurant was renovated four times over the last 40 years. In the early 30's we expanded to 11 booths, 30 tables, and a counter. We later added an atrium that allowed for 12 more tables. In 1976, we closed for 2 months, gutted the restaurant, and rebuilt it the way we are now. In 2002 our neon sign started an electrical fire, leaving us forced to close for eight months to rebuild. And, here we are today. Who knows what will happen next?

Our menu has remained the simplest over the years and we have always tried to satisfy all palates with a variety of choices at any hour of the day. We have been fortunate to serve a diverse crowd of customers: business folk, families, construction workers, nurses, police, doctors, nurses, teachers, artists, students, the farmers, the kids... the list goes on and on.

We keep an article from The Milwaukee Journal written in 1979 hung over our counter. I think you'll see Kite's owner, Eddy VanUilen, said it best, "It's a no-frills place that you can put a bed-bug on the counter, read and eat dinner." We've been upholding that standard for over 35 years now and hope to continue doing so for another 35. Thank you for your patronage, and I'll meet you at Kite Fisher's."

-Doris Panos
